

Expanded card and payment focus and global audience give you more ways to feel the Power of Participation!

Log on to www.napcp.org, visit the store and take the free “tour” of the NAPCP website via recorded webinar: What’s next? Become a member!

NAPCP benefits for the card and payment industry:

■ Vibrant website makes it easy to stay informed and participate!

- Use the robust site search tool to find resources, eNetworking discussions and NAPCP member profiles that match your advanced search criteria
- Receive notifications of eNetworking questions, messages from other members, new events, Career Center job postings and event registration receipts
- Set up a comprehensive profile—including your resume and photo—for more meaningful member directory search results
- Build and manage your resume online
- Create a user group (www.napcp.org/usergroups) to connect members who share something in common

■ Bring your team together with associate and group membership—available to end-user and provider organizations with fees as low as $99 each

A divide-and-conquer strategy really works! Imagine assigning research to one associate and eNetworking outreach to another—with a team of card and payment professionals accessing NAPCP resources, you can make real progress in no time. Visit www.napcp.org/membertypes for details.

■ Can’t join yet? Subscribe and receive a higher level of website access

If you can’t become a member just yet, become a subscriber so you can:

- build a profile for event registration and access to select resources and the Career Center
- receive industry news and event notifications, including invitations to participate in free webinars, audio calls, industry surveys and quick online polls
- get a complimentary printed copy of the annual NAPCP Resource Guide of product and service providers

■ Job change? Your membership can be transferred to your colleague

Access to member resources is exclusive to the designated, individual member; membership cannot be shared among multiple individuals. In the event that a member leaves the organization or changes job roles, the NAPCP can reassign the membership to another individual who can best use these important benefits.

Professional certification demonstrates expertise

■ Certified Purchasing Card Professional (CPCP) credential (www.napcp.org/cpcp)

Members and non-members, end-users and providers can gain recognition for mastering the body of knowledge required to manage all aspects of a P-Card program. New forms and procedures make it easy to identify eligibility points.

Resources and networking tools from the NAPCP

■ Resource Center, TransAct! Newsletter and Quarterly Newsletter

Take advantage of the white papers, industry studies, surveys, guidelines for creating an RFP and articles that can help you make a difference in your program. Periodic newsletters bring you the pulse of the industry; review the TransAct! archive (since June 2011) and quarterly newsletter archive of past editions since 2000.

■ eNetworking

Post a question or offer your own insight through this online Q&A tool—an active exchange of practical advice relevant to the job you do every day. This isn’t just social networking, it’s real help from P-Card professionals around the world.

■ Share Resources Online

Before you start from scratch, review the policies, procedures, surveys and samples contributed by NAPCP end-user members. Participate today in this unique give-and-take opportunity!

■ Online Polls, Results and “Tips”

Every two weeks, the NAPCP releases a new poll. Respond, see the instant results and read the tip from the NAPCP. It’s a fun, quick way for members and subscribers to gain industry knowledge and perspective.

■ Online Member Directory (end-users only)

End-user members, search the member directory to identify and network with other professionals who share common program types, technology solutions, issuers and more.

■ Career Center

Our job bulletin board is open to NAPCP members and subscribers; any website visitor can post an open position. Additional job search tools are available to NAPCP members.

■ Resource Guide (www.napcp.org/resourceguide)

Your source for complete contact information for leading industry product and service providers. The NAPCP Resource Guide is free—in hard copy or via PDF download 24/7.

Events bring card and payment professionals together

■ Annual Commercial Card and Payment Conference

Hundreds of end-users, issuers and solutions providers gather for unsurpassed education, vital networking, and cutting-edge exhibits and demos during this multi-day event.

■ Regional Forums

These one-day, small-group events feature an end-user speaker, an industry update from the NAPCP and roundtable discussions.

■ Workshops

The NAPCP periodically offers workshops on select topics for audiences of varying experience levels.

■ Webinars and Complimentary Virtual Demonstrations

Participate in education from the comfort of your own office! Join card and payment providers industry experts as they deliver information on a variety of relevant topics and demonstrate new solutions that solve unique business issues. Visit the NAPCP store for on-demand webinars, too.
